

KOREAN TV SHOW INTERVIEWS LACDMH CLINICIAN ABOUT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

The Korean television channel tvK interviewed Young Ahn, LCSW, on one of its shows recently. Ahn is a Mental Health Services Coordinator on the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health (LACDMH) SA 4 Administration Outreach & Engagement Team.

During the interview, Ahn spoke about LACDMH services, including the 24/7 ACCESS helpline and various programs for individuals and families. She specifically shared information about stigma reduction as well as depression among Korean immigrants that has been associated with recent murder-suicide incidents in the Korean community. Ahn also shared information about working with faith-based organizations and faith leaders.
